COUNTY BOARD OR COMMISSION INFORMATION
Explain why you are interested in serving on this Board or Commission and what experience you bring that would assist in decision making and future actions of this Board or Commission.
I am interested in serving on this board to be of service to my community. My counseling experience with different age, social and economic backgrounds may help in decision making. In the past I have done extensive work in drug and alcohol prevention in our community. A family member has worked in adult protection, and this has given great insight and appreciation for the work that they do.
Have you served on any board, commission or committee in Nueces County?
