11.16.12 We took 6 students out to Ainsworth Trucking to look at careers in the trucking industry. Our students even got to try out the trucking simulator there, which Ainsworth uses to test truckers' skills.

1.15.12 We took 6 students on a media trip, to KRIS-TV Studios, the Caller Times, and Malkan Communications, where they got to make "shout-outs" on Z95.

2.26.13 HELP took 20 students on a tour of Spohn Shoreline Hospital, Humpal Physical Therapy, and Gold's Gym.

3.28.13 We took 17 students on a tour of the Port Area, including the US Coast Guard cutters.

5.1.13 HELP took 10 students to the Texas Oil and Gas Conference, where they got to look at different oil and gas-related jobs and meet US Rep. Blake Farenthold.

6.12.13 We took 10 students check out the lab at Del Mar West, where they also looked at careers in automotive, cosmetology, dental, and radiography.

7.18.13 Behind the scenes look at careers at the Texas State Aquarium with 6 students. We attended crime scene training at the Art Museum.

8.1.13 We kicked off the new individual mentoring aspect of our program with an icebreaker baseball game, attended by 15 students, 12 mentors, Judge Chesney, and probation officers as well. It was a great success!

8.15.13 Our next mentor/mentee activity was taking 7 students and mentors to see Les Miserables at the Harbor Playhouse.

Although we didn't receive the grant money until a week before the end of the grant period, these are some of the activities we have done with students over the year, which the $600 grant was used to help subsidize. In this particular case, the funds went towards HELP's rent.
