Dear Judge Canales,

It is with great respect that I ask for your vote and appointment for a very special unexpired term representing you, Nueces County at the Port of Corpus Christi Authority.

There is no doubt, you have great (and fabulous) shoes to fill. I share your vision of strengthening economic development in our region through the Port's continued march forward as a landlord port who understands its critical role in our National economy while grounding itself in local, community, and environmental stewardship. Many times I have represented the Coastal Bend Region in Washington D.C. and in Austin, I am more than willing to open doors and connect our Port however possible, at all levels. We can continue to achieve for the Coastal Bend – but it is paramount to have prepared, and informed Port Commissioners who can hit the ground running on day 1.

To me, "Good enough" is unacceptable. Should I earn your vote and be appointed to represent you – know that I will commit the time, energy, and focus needed to continue the path our Port is on, but also emphasize the importance of working with local small businesses, community support, and champion the Port's increasing efforts and partnerships with local governmental entities such as Nueces County, City of Corpus Christi, Independent School Districts, International Airport, Regional Transportation, amongst others. Aligning the Port's vision with fellow entities rises the tide and lifts all boats.

In my tenure elected as Chairman of the Corpus Christi Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and on the Executive Committee of the Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce, I learned very quickly it is of utmost importance that we understand and fulfill our mission of supporting members (Our Community), respect our cultural heritage, and do everything possible for all to have the opportunity to succeed. Our Port not only plays a pivotal role in our National economy but encouraging our local youth to realize the Job Creation in the Coastal Bend begins with the Port's community involvement.

I commit to you to be your informed, prepared, hard-working and ready, appointee. I will report in as often as you ask, and most importantly listen to your advice, wisdom and direction. We are in too critical of a time to not appoint the hardest working, most prepared Port Commissioner candidate available.

Your vote and confidence is gratefully appreciated. I welcome any and all opportunities to meet with you, talk with you, and hopefully work with you in this effort.

Respectfully submitted,

Chad Magill
