

Pursuant to Chapter 46 of the Texas Government Code, the "County prosecutor" receives a state supplement that is paid by the state. See 46.0031 Tex. Gov. Code. Using this account has no fiscal impact on the county. The usage of this account is governed by 46.0031, and the "county prosecutor" has the SOLE discretion to use this account pursuant to the limitations set out by the same statute.